

The Cecilia Hogan Award in Prospect Development

The Cecilia Hogan Award in Prospect Development acknowledges outstanding effort or achievement in prospect development, which may include special projects, articles in development-related publications, or other efforts that have served to promote or assist others in the field of prospect development. It also recognizes exceptional effort or achievement that has served the development mission of the nominee's organization.

The Cecilia Hogan Award in Prospect Development includes one year of Apra-NW membership and free registration to the Apra-NW regional conference. It is open to all members of the Prospect Development community and the Apra- NW board will select and announce the winner prior to the conference.

Self-nominations are encouraged.
